Description :

Prsentation de l'diteurImagine you are a club player who has been given the opportunity to talk at length with a famous Grandmaster. How would you make the most of this opportunity? This book is the much anticipated follow-up to the highly acclaimed and award-nominated Lessons with a Grandmaster. It bridges the gap between great player and amateur through a series of conversations between teacher, the renowned Grandmaster Boris Gulko, and student Dr. Joel R. Sneed, a professor of psychology and amateur chess player. The lessons are based on Gulko's own battles against fellow Grandmasters. This second volume focuses on dynamic chess, developing chess imagination, the capacity to take risks, the ability to simultaneously attack and defend, and perhaps above all, the ability to visualize the chess board and calculate combinations in sharp positions.* Learn from the chess games of Boris Gulko* Typical questions you would ask a Grandmaster answered!* Improve your tactical play and visualization

Revue de presse This book is an outstanding contribution to instructional chess... This title is destined to be a classic... Lessons with a Grandmaster might just be the finest treatise ever written on the nuances and dynamics of positional play. This is learning at its best. --John D. Warth, ChessCafe.com commenting on Volume 1 It is impossible to recommend this book highly enough. Ten out of ten. --Paul Kane, Manchester Chess Federation commenting on Volume 1
