Prsentation de l'diteurThey are the world's best-kept secret an underground society whose eternal cause is to protect the world against the dark creatures and evil forces that inhabit the night.Now Sentinels are being targeted, murdered and turned as the fury of an ancient evil is unleashed once more. And when 15-year-old Nicholas Hallow's parents are killed in a suspicious train crash, the teenager is drawn into a desperate struggle against malevolent powers.Sentinel is the first book in the Sentinel Trilogy a world of unconventional heroes, monsters, murder and magic.www.thesentineltrilogy.comRevue de presse"An ordinary orphaned teenager turns out to be the saviour of a hidden magical world. Don't think you've read this before in the Harry Potter books though, Sentinel sets a darker, grittier tone. The action is fast and violent, the monsters, including a seductive vampiress, are memorable." John Wyatt, The Sun "Hugely engaging. Winning could well be on to a winner." Claire Nicholls, SciFiNow magazine "A great, imaginative, gripping read." Nev Pierce, Editor-at-Large, Empire "Written poetically with carefully-drawn characters, this is an extremely promising YA debut by a young author." Kate Whiting, Press Association "Fast-paced, surprising and madly compelling." Rosie Fletcher, Total Film "An epic tale that leaves the reader wanting more." David Estes, author of The Moon Dwellers "You won't want to put it down." Sarah McMullan, the 13th Floor. "A great, imaginative, gripping read." --Nev Pierce, Editor-at-Large, Empire "Hugely engaging. Winning could well be on to a winner." --Claire Nicholls, SciFiNow magazine "A great, imaginative, gripping read." --Nev Pierce, Editor-at-Large, Empire
